Goodbye to W. Schmitt

In the JDN Pub „To ollen Windenschmitte“: W. Neuhaus-Galladé and W. Schmitt.

On 31st March Wolfgang Schmitt has finalised his working life. Overall he had been working for JDN for 42 years. At first he was in charge of the national and international mining customers. Additionally he concentrated on the S/Y sector at the North and Baltic Sea as well as the markets in Eastern Europe.

We wish W. Schmitt good luck and health for his new period of life.

New JDN Website

From beginning of May JDN presents new websites under the well-known address www.jdn.de. User-friendly, innovative and customer orientated.

The new website is clearly structured and leads you directly to the required information.

Example: By only one click you get access to the technical data of a product, to the brochure download or the examples of application.

Enjoy discovering the new JDN website. We are looking forward to receiving your feedback.
